"Washington" Party

Miss Anna S. Nelson, bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Nelson, entertained a large number of her young friends with a George Washington party, on Saturday in a charming manner.

The home was beautifully decorated, in such a manner as to inspire a glow of patriotism in the minds of the young guests. Games were played, one of the most enjoyable being a guessing contest in which a prize was offered to the one who correctly estimated the number of cherries on an improvised cherry tree.

Dainty little girls and manly young lads moving swiftly from one diversion to another, laughing merrily, with faces lighted by enthusiasm, presented a scene of fairy-like beauty.

A most delightful luncheon in which the patriotic idea was carried out in detail, completed an afternoon which was a source of much pleasure to all those present.

DEATH OF MISS

SADIE KEARNS

Passes Away by Peculiarly Mournful Coincidence on Same Day a Month After Her Father Died.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 26.—One of the saddest deaths that has occurred in Lexington in years, was that of Miss Sadie Kearns, aged 20, daughter of the late P. J. Kearns, who expired at 1:10 o'clock Monday morning at her home, 321 Walnut street.

Miss Kearns' death, by peculiarly mournful coincidence, occurred one month to the day after the death of her father, for whom she entertained the greatest filial affection. It will be recalled that Mr. Kearns met his tragic end a month ago in a railway accident at Wrigley, Ky. The daughter was then in impaired health, and the blow was so crushing she never survived the shock, extreme nervousness, resulting in a heart affection, having hastened the end.

She was a lovable girl, possessing the warm affection of many friends on every hand, whose sorrow at her passing can not be measured by mere words, and the deepest sympathy goes out to those of the stricken home, twice visited by the death angel within so short a period.

Miss Kearns is survived by her mother, her sisters, Mrs. Robert Hale, Mrs. Florence Doyle, Misses Cecilia, Jeannette, of this city; Mrs. E. C. Bertouree, of New Orleans, and her brother, T. M. Kearns, of Tucson, Arizona.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Two storms of rain or snow, or both, are predicted by the weekly bulletin of the weather bureau.

"A disturbance centering in the southwest, will advance to the Ohio valley on Monday and move to the St. Lawrence valley."

It will be attended by precipitations over the Mississippi valley and the region east, the precipitation being in the form of rain in southern and snow and rain in northern states.

This disturbance will be followed by a change to colder weather over all districts east of the Rocky mountains.

tains and it is probable that rising temperature will overspread the plains states on Tuesday and the eastern half of the country by the middle of the week.

The next general disturbance to cross the country will appear in the far west on Wednesday or Thursday and cross the middle west about Friday. It probably will be attended by general rains, although snows are likely in northern state.

ALMOST LOST HIS LIFE.

S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., will never forget his terrible exposure to a merciless storm. "It gave me a dreadful cold," he writes, "that caused severe pains in my chest, so it was hard for me to breathe. I did so and two bottles completely cured me." Use only this quick, safe, reliable medicine for coughs, colds, or any throat or lung trouble. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
